

Lancashire Partnership Against Crime (LANPAC)

MEMBERSHIP

LANPAC is a registered charity that brings together Lancashire Constabulary, businesses, and public services to reduce crime and improve community safety. We provide vital funding for local crime prevention and community safety initiatives proposed by the Police, benefiting the entire community.

By becoming a member, your organisation can contribute directly to making Lancashire safer while showcasing your commitment to corporate social responsibility. Membership is open to organisations of all sizes, with a tiered fee structure to ensure inclusivity.

Why join LANPAC?

- Confidence that your membership fee makes a tangible contribution to crime reduction and community prosperity in the areas where you operate, addressing local issues in collaboration with your local policing team.
- Opportunity for your organisation to sponsor community safety projects, aligning your business with initiatives that promote safety and positive community impact.
- Demonstrate your commitment to corporate social responsibility through active participation in crime prevention efforts.
- Access to exclusive events focused on crime prevention strategies, offering opportunities to learn from experts and network with other organisations.
- Opportunity to exhibit at events, providing a platform to showcase your products and services to an audience focused on crime prevention.
- Membership fosters connections with other organisations and crime prevention experts, encouraging collaborative efforts to tackle crime.
- Regular email updates with the latest crime prevention advice, gathered from various intelligence sources and shared with all members.
- The privilege to display the LANPAC logo on your business stationery and publications, subject to specific guidelines.
- Direct link to your organisation on the LANPAC website, enhancing visibility.
- Access to Lancashire Constabulary Hutton HQ meeting rooms for your own business purposes.
